This examination schedule is tentative and is subject to change without notice. Students must be available to take examinations on any day during the examination period. Individual examinations will be re-scheduled only because of emergency circumstances (such as a documented illness) or conflicts with other examinations as defined in the academic policies posted on the Law School web site http://www.usfca.edu/law/registrar/exams/. Request to reschedule an exam must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the last day of classes (for exam conflicts). A final schedule of examinations will be posted prior to the end of the semester.

Students receiving special examination accommodations approved by the Office of Student Disability Services will be required to take examinations as scheduled by the Law Registrar's Office and may be required to take it after the examination period and must be available to do so. Do not make travel arrangements until your final exam schedule has been confirmed by the Law Registrar's Office.
